ABOUT ME

My name is Logan and I'm an outgoing, passionate, and creative person. I compose, produce, and arrange music for all styles ranging from film music to contemporary pop music. I love collaboration, and I find this to be my strongest asset. When I'm not working on music you'll find me surfing or traveling with family!

Athena Video Productions
Music and Video Producer

- Began as a production assistant working on live video shoots. Assisted with audio recordings, video, lighting, setup/tear down and post production editing. Scored and produced original music for multiple Athena Video Production projects including many Sanford Burnham Prebys Advertisements.
- Improved efficiency by working closely with the production lead at AVP, and by keeping hours flexible. Provided a full spectrum of in-house production work from live shoot development, to post production scoring and editing.

EDUCATION

May 2018
Aug 2014

University of Miami Frost School of Music

- I studied Media Writing and Production with an emphasis in contemporary keyboard.
- While at UM I worked with Chris Boardman and Carlos Rafael Rivera on film scoring and music production. I also trained as a pianist with Daniel Strange. We covered all genres, and focused on implementing piano technique/theory into my compositions and productions.
